THE COACH

KIM Dong-Sung won a gold medal in the 1000m race and a silver medal in the 5000m relay at the 1998 Winter Olympics.

He has been a two-time Overall World Champion in 1997 and in 2002 and two-time Overall World Cup Champion (1999-2000, 2001-2002)

Mr KIM presently coaches at the Mokdong ice Rink in Seoul, Korea.

Mr KIM is a highly respected coach who has contributed in creating some of the finest South Korean short track speed skaters in recent times.

Australian Ice Racing is very honoured to be able to welcome Mr KIM to Australia to provide expert guidance not only for our developing skaters but for our coaches to learn from a master level coach in the sport of short track speed skating.

THE ASSISTANT COACH

Lachlan Hay is presently the appointed coach for the AIR/OWIA junior development program, established to develop junior athletes towards the high-performance level in the absence of a current Australian based senior program.

As an athlete, Hay has contested over 20 World Cups, two (2) Junior World Championships, four (4) Senior World Championships and two (2) Olympic Winter Games for Australia, in 2006 and 2010.

Hay has become a prominent Australian coach, coaching 3 of the 6 Australian representative skaters at Junior Worlds Championships this year.

Hay is presently the appointed head coach of the Australian World Cup Team for the 2018 Olympic Qualifying events.
